IN THE   COURT

Her Majesty The Queen

v.

Order #_____

Approved:

_____
_____
(Name & ID Number of Offender / Young Person)

Judge

_____

ORDER

(Taking of Bodily Substances for DNA Analysis)

(Ss. 487.051 and 487.052 CC)

D/M/Y

To: The peace officers of the Province of Nova Scotia

9 The offender has been convicted of or discharged for the following offence(s):
9 The young person has been found guilty of the following offence(s):

Case No(s). And Brief Description of Offence(s)	Section	Date and Place	Sentence or custodial period

9   The offence is a primary designated offence(s) under section 487.04 of the Criminal Code.

9   The offence is a:

(a) secondary designated offence under section 487.04 Criminal Code, or

(b) designated offence under section 487.04 of the Criminal Code committed before subsection 5(1) of the DNA Identification Act came into force.

The Court has considered the offender's / young person's criminal record, the nature of the offence and the circumstances surrounding its commission and the impact this order would have on the offender's / young person's privacy and security of the person. The Court is satisfied it is in the best interests of the administration of justice to make this order.

The Court authorizes you to take, or cause to be taken by a person acting under your direction, the number of samples of bodily substances from the offender / young person reasonably required for forensic DNA analysis, provided that the person taking the samples is able by virtue of training or experience to take the samples by means of the investigative procedures described in subsection 487.06(1) of the Criminal Code.

9   This Order is subject to the following terms and conditions that the Court considers advisable to ensure the taking of the samples is reasonable in the circumstances:

Dated at _____, Nova Scotia, on _____, 20_____.

_____
Judge, Clerk

Distribution: Court
                         Prosecutor
                         Police

Offender / Young Person
(Defence Counsel)