Motion

Aubrey Pelley and Deanna Smith, the Plaintiffs in this proceeding, move for:

- 1) an Order certifying this proceeding as a Common Law Class Proceeding pursuant to s. 4(3) and 7 of the Class Proceedings Act, S.N.S. 2007, c. 28 and appointing the Plaintiffs as Representative Plaintiffs for the Class or Classes;

- 2) an Order defining the Classes as:
 - a) Former residents who, as wards of the Province, were placed in the NSHCC as residents.
 - b) Former residents, who resided in the Nova Scotia Home for Colored Children but who were not wards of the Province.
- 3) an Order that the within action be certified on the basis of the following common issues:
 1. What was the legal relationship and the extent of the obligations owed by each of the Defendants to the former residents who comprise each of the 2 Classes?
 2. Did the Defendant, the Nova Scotia Home for Colored Children, owe a duty of care to the former residents who comprise each of the 2 Classes?
 3. If the answer to 2 is yes, did the Defendant, Nova Scotia Home for Colored Children, breach its duty of care?
 4. Did the Defendant, the Attorney General of Nova Scotia, owe a duty of care to the former residents who comprise each of the 2 Classes?
 5. If the answer to 4 is yes, did the Defendant, the Attorney General of Nova Scotia, breach its duty of care?
 6. Did the Defendant, the Nova Scotia Home for Colored Children, owe a fiduciary duty to the former residents who comprise each of the 2 Classes?
 7. If the answer to 6 is yes, did the Defendant, Nova Scotia Home for Colored Children, breach its fiduciary duty?
 8. Did the Defendant, the Attorney General of Nova Scotia, owe a fiduciary duty to the former residents who comprise each of the 2 Classes?
 9. If the answer to 8 is yes, did the Defendant, the Attorney General of Nova Scotia, breach its fiduciary duty?
 10. Are the Defendants, or either of them, vicariously liable for the conduct of their agents, employees and staff?

11. Does the conduct of the Defendants, or either of them, justify an award of punitive and/or aggravated damages, and if so, in what amount?
- 4) an Order that the Notice of Certification to the Class Members be given pursuant to the Litigation Plan attached and marked as Exhibit "A" to the affidavit of Michael Dull;
 - 5) an Order that the Defendants shall be responsible for all costs associated with the Notice of Certification;
 - 6) an Order that the Class Members who elect to opt-out of the class proceeding must do so in a manner and within a period of time to be fixed by the Court;
 - 7) an Order for costs of this application on a full indemnity basis, including taxes; and
 - 8) Such further and other relief as the Court may seem just.

Time and place

The motion is to be heard by The Honourable Justice Arthur LeBlanc on October 22 – 26, 2012 commencing each day at 9:30a.m in the Law Courts, 1869 Upper Water Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia.
