Statement of Claim

Proceeding under the Class Proceedings Act, S.N.S. 2007, c. 28

I. OVERVIEW

1. An individual's privacy interest is a fundamental value that warrants protection. Hospital patients have a right to the informational privacy. A patient's medical records contain information of an inherently private and personal nature.

2. For many years, an employee of the South West Nova District Health Authority intentionally intruded on the private medical records of hospital patients. The Plaintiffs are victims of this breach of privacy. They bring this action on behalf of themselves and other victims of the privacy breach seeking redress for this highly offensive invasion of privacy.

II. REPRESENTATIVE PLAINTIFFS AND CLASS

3. The Plaintiff, Alicia Hemeon currently resides at 28 George Street, Shelburne, Nova Scotia.

4. The Plaintiff, Willa Magee currently resides at 109 Water Street, Shelburne, Nova Scotia.

5. The Plaintiffs and their families have long been patients of the Defendant, South West Nova District Health Authority. The Defendant is in possession of their medical records. These records contain private information, concerning, but not limited to, their personal health, their employment, their social insurance number, their health card number, as well as information concerning their family members.

6. On June 11, 2012, the Plaintiffs received correspondence from the Defendant advising that their personal information had been inappropriately accessed by one of its employees (hereinafter referred to as "the Defendant's employee").

7. The Plaintiffs suffered distress, humiliation and anguish over the breach of privacy.

8. The Plaintiffs seek to certify this action as a Class Proceeding and plead the Class Proceedings Act, S.N.S. 2007, c. 28, as providing the basis for such certification. The Plaintiffs, as the Representative Plaintiffs, do not have any interest adverse to any of the members of the proposed Class. The Plaintiffs state that there is an identifiable class that would be fairly and adequately represented by them; that the Plaintiffs' claims raise common issues; and that a Class Proceeding would be the preferable procedure for the resolution of such common issues.

9. The Plaintiffs propose to bring a Class Proceeding on behalf of themselves and a Class of other Canadian residents whose medical records were inappropriately accessed by the Defendant's employee. The proposed Class will be further defined in the Motion for Certification.

III. THE DEFENDANT

10. The Defendant, South West Nova District Health Authority, is a body corporate, incorporated under the Health Authorities Act, S.N.S. 2000, c. 6. The Defendant was in possession of the private information contained in the medical records of the Plaintiffs and Class Members.

11. At all material times, the Defendant was responsible for the protection of the private information contained in the medical records of the Plaintiffs and Class Members.

IV. THE BREACH OF PRIVACY

12. The Defendant stores patient medical records electronically on a patient information system. Between April and May 2012, an investigation was conducted by the Defendant and it was learned that an employee had inappropriately accessed the private health information of the Plaintiffs and Class Members through a work computer.

13. The Defendant's employee intentionally intruded on the seclusion of the Plaintiffs' and Class Members' private medical records. The Defendant's employee did not have a medical purpose or lawful justification for accessing these private medical records. The invasion of privacy is highly offensive.

V. VICARIOUS LIABILITY

14. The Defendant's employee, without valid reason, intentionally intruded on the seclusion of the Plaintiffs' and Class Members' private medical records in the course of her employment.

15. The Plaintiffs plead the doctrine of respondeat superior and states that the Defendant is vicariously liable for the actions of the Defendant's employee.

VI. NEGLIGENCE

16. Further, the Plaintiffs plead that the conduct of the Defendant constitutes negligence, by not having in place management and operations procedures that would reasonably have prevented or detected the privacy breaches in a timely fashion.

VII. DAMAGES

17. The Plaintiffs and Class Members have suffered injuries and damages that were caused by the Defendant and the Defendant's employee. The invasion of privacy is highly offensive causing distress, humiliation or anguish.

VIII. AGGRAVATED, PUNITIVE AND EXEMPLARY DAMAGES

18. The Plaintiffs state that the conduct of the Defendant's employee, for which the Defendant is vicariously liable, was willful, arrogant, callous, and highhanded and constituted a gross violation of the privacy rights of the Plaintiff and Class Members. The Plaintiff respectfully submits that this is an appropriate case for punitive, aggravated and/or exemplary damages.

IX. RELIEF SOUGHT

19. The Plaintiffs repeat the foregoing paragraphs and seeks the following relief:
- (a) an Order certifying this proceeding as a Class Proceeding and appointing the Plaintiffs as the Representative Plaintiffs for the Class or Classes;
 - (b) a declaration that the Defendant is vicariously liable for the actions of the Defendant's employee;
 - (c) damages for the breach of privacy and negligence;
 - (d) aggravated, punitive and/or exemplary damages;
 - (e) interest pursuant to the Judicature Act;
 - (f) costs; and
 - (g) such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deems just.
