

COVID-19: Measures Applicable to the Nova Scotia Court of Appeal

Monday, March 16, 2020

Following the advice of public health officials regarding social distancing and public gatherings, Chief Justice Michael Wood has directed that all appeals scheduled for the March/April term will be adjourned. Court staff will contact counsel and the parties involved to reschedule these matters.

The Court will review this term's docket to determine if there are any matters that must proceed due to their exceptional circumstances. Parties in those matters will be contacted and advised of alternative procedures to permit the appeal to be heard without the parties or counsel having to appear in person.

All Chambers matters will proceed as scheduled and will be heard by telephone only.

Anyone looking to file documents electronically with the Court of Appeal should make that request in writing to the Registrar at Caroline.McInnes@courts.ns.ca.
