- 2 A sheriff to whom a certified copy of this order is delivered, and to whom information about attached property is given, shall take, and hold as a receiver, the attached property, including a debt, rent, legacy, share, bond, debenture, other corporate security, fund, currency, demand, or demand accruing due.

Person who holds property must turn it over

- 3 A party or other person to whom a certified copy of this order is delivered and who holds attached property must turn it over to the sheriff, unless the sheriff, in writing, permits the person to continue holding the property.

Debts and obligations presently owed to party

- 4 A person who owes a debt, or other obligation, to the party whose property is attached must immediately pay the debt, or liquidate the obligation and pay the money, to the sheriff, unless the sheriff allows otherwise in writing.

Debts and obligations to be paid in future

- 5 A person who owes a debt to be paid to the party, who owes an obligation to the party that will be liquidated and paid, or has an obligation to the party that will be valued and paid in the future, must make the payment to the sheriff when the payment comes due, unless the sheriff permits otherwise in writing.

Expenses to be paid by moving party

- 10 The party who obtains this order must pay the expenses of attaching, taking, holding, storing, and protecting attached property and must provide a reasonable advance required by the sheriff. The sheriff need not act, or continue acting, on this order if the party who moved for it fails to pay the expenses of attachment, taking possession, and holding the property or fails to provide a required advance.

Instructions to Commissioner for Taking Evidence

The Supreme Court of Nova Scotia has commissioned you to take evidence for use in this proceeding and, as a condition of your appointment, requires that you accept the following instructions by signing a copy of this document and filing it with the court. If the evidence is to be taken outside Nova Scotia, you may also accept instructions from a court in the jurisdiction where the evidence is taken.

Impartiality and accuracy

- 1 You will conduct the taking of evidence impartially, cause it to be accurately recorded, and see that it is transcribed as soon as possible after the witness testifies.

Administering oath or affirmation

- 2 The authorization for you to administer an oath or affirmation is in accordance with Sections 2 and 67 of the Nova Scotia Evidence Act. The words of the oath or affirmation are:

You [swear/solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm] that the evidence you are about to give in this proceeding between [names of parties] will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.
(Witness acknowledges)

If you are taking evidence outside Nova Scotia, you may take whatever further steps are required to ensure that the laws of perjury of the place where the examination is conducted apply to the taking of the evidence.

Order of examinations

- 3 After swearing or affirming the witness, you will permit the party who moved for the order appointing you to conduct a direct examination of the witness, allow each other party to conduct a cross-examination in the order in which the parties appear in the heading, and allow any re-direct examination by the party who leads evidence on direct.

Objections

- 4 A party may object to a question, but, unless the question is withdrawn, you must direct the witness to answer it so the court can rule later on admissibility of the answer.

Exhibits

- 5 You will mark each exhibit shown to the witness by consecutive number, and take control of the exhibit.

Translation

- 6 You will retain a translator or signer if the witness cannot adequately understand the questions, or give answers adequately understood, without the assistance of a person who is able to translate or sign. After swearing or affirming a translator or signer, you, or counsel for a party, will question the translator or signer on record about their ability to clearly understand the questions to be asked and the answers to be given, and to exactly translate or sign the questions and answers. The translator or signer must also swear or affirm as required by Nova Scotia Civil Procedure Rule 48.03(3).

Transcript

- 7 You, or a person retained by you who is competent to prepare a transcript for use in court, will prepare a transcript of everything said during the taking of evidence. You will certify that the transcript is accurate.

Your report

8 You will report to the court that you carried out your commission in accordance with the order and these instructions, and you will file the transcript and each exhibit with the report. These are filed by delivery to [name of prothonotary] , Prothonotary of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, at _____ Street _____ Nova Scotia, Canada [postal code] .

Instructions to Commissioner to Transmit Evidence

The Supreme Court of Nova Scotia has commissioned you to transmit evidence to the court in this proceeding and, as a condition of your appointment, requires that you accept the following instructions by signing a copy of this document and filing it with the court. If the evidence is to be taken outside Nova Scotia, you may also accept instructions from a court in the jurisdiction where the evidence is taken.

Transmission, description, and identification

- 1 You will carefully cause the witnesses' voice and image to be simultaneously transmitted to the court, describe at the beginning of the transmission the parts of the commissioner's room not seen in the courtroom, and identify everyone present there. The transmission must be by video conference [of such quality the witness is virtually present in the courtroom/describe equipment] .

Administering oath or affirmation

- 2 The authorization for you to administer an oath or affirmation is in accordance with Sections 2 and 67 of the Nova Scotia Evidence Act. The words of the oath or affirmation are:

You [swear/solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm] that the evidence you are about to give in this proceeding between [names of parties] will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.
(Witness acknowledges)

If you are taking evidence outside Nova Scotia, you may take whatever further steps are required to ensure that the laws of perjury of the place where the examination is conducted apply to the taking of evidence.

Directions by, and report to, judge

- 3 The judge will direct the examinations after you swear or affirm the witness. You will follow directions given by the judge to you, such as directions about exhibits, controlling the witness, translation or signing, and a witness who may only testify on a promise to tell the truth. You must report to the judge anything unusual that happens in the room, unless it appears in the transmission.

Inferior telecommunication

- 4 If the transmission is not by video conference of such quality that the witness is virtually present in the courtroom, you must keep the witness from communicating with others during the examination, keep the witness from consulting notes or other information, show the witness each exhibit as directed by the judge or referred to by a party, and make a report on record when the witness looks at an exhibit indicating what the witness is looking at. These instructions may be varied by the judge.

Failures in transmission

- 5 The court will provide an emergency telephone number, and you must call that number to get directions from the judge if the transmission fails to the extent that you and the judge are not in communication.

Your report

- 6 You will report as the judge directs, including directions about an exhibit proved during the taking of evidence.

You may have the alternative claim dismissed by paying amount claimed

You may pay the amount claimed, obtain a receipt, and deliver the receipt to the prothonotary, who will dismiss the alternative claim, except the claim for taxed disbursements.

You may settle the amount for disbursements with the plaintiff's counsel, with a plaintiff who acts on their own, or by proceeding with a taxation of the disbursements in the Small Claims Court.

You may demand notice of steps in the action

If you do not have a defence to the claim or you do not choose to defend it, you may, if you wish to have further notice, file a demand for notice.

If you file a demand for notice, the plaintiff must notify you before obtaining judgment and, unless the court orders otherwise, you will be entitled to notice of each other step in this action.

Execution Order

Before the prothonotary,

Judgment Debtor: [name and address of judgment debtor]

On the motion of the judgment creditor [name] , the following is ordered:

Amount to be recovered

- 1 This execution order is issued to recover the amounts showing, or allowed for, in the attached statement of amount for execution.

Sale of land

- 2 The sheriff may take possession of land to be sold under the Sale of Land Under Execution Act.

Seizure of other property

- 3 The sheriff must seize, otherwise take control of, and accept as a receiver all property in which the judgment debtor has an interest, except property exempt from execution and property held by the execution debtor as trustee for another person. This includes moveables, currency, shares, bonds, debentures, other security, legacies, debts, rent, wages, and any other demand due or accruing due to the judgment debtor at any time. The sheriff may come on land, open a building, take control of a moveable not under seizure, break a lock or other barrier, and take any other reasonable measure to effect the seizure. The property may be seized, or otherwise taken from, the judgment debtor or any other person.

Copy of order on seizure

- 4 The sheriff must deliver a copy of this order personally to a person from whom a moveable is seized when the person is present, and by registered mail after the seizure to a person who is not present.

Inventory and limit for seizure

- 5 The sheriff must prepare an inventory of seized moveables including the sheriff's estimate of the value of each. The sheriff may not seize more moveables than the sheriff estimates are necessary to satisfy the amount for execution under all execution orders against the judgment debtor.

Attachment of moveable and debt

- 6 The sheriff who cannot conveniently seize a moveable may cause a copy of the execution order to be delivered to a person who has control of the moveable. The sheriff may deliver a copy of the order to a person who is or may become obligated to pay a debt or other liquidable obligation to and for the benefit of the judgment debtor. The judgment debtor's interest in the moveable or the obligation is attached when the order is delivered. The person is released from liability to make a payment to, or hold a moveable on behalf of, the judgment debtor only when one of the following occurs:
 - the person makes the payment to the sheriff;
 - the sheriff seizes the moveable, or sells a moveable without a seizure;
 - the person complies with terms for payment, seizure, or sale agreed to by the sheriff or set by further order.

Injunction to hold property, freeze obligations, and require delivery or payment

- 7 A judgment debtor, a person who controls property of the judgment debtor, and a person who is obligated or becomes obligated to pay a debt or other liquidable obligation to the judgment debtor must not give up control of the property or make the payment unless one of the following applies:
 - the property or obligation is exempt from this execution order;
 - the sheriff, in writing, permits otherwise;

- this execution order or a further order provides otherwise.

The person must, instead, allow the property to be seized by, or make the payment to, the sheriff. A person who fails to obey these injunctions may be punished under Nova Scotia Civil Procedure Rule 89 - Contempt.

Sale of moveable and other kinds of property

- 8 The sheriff may sell at public auction anything that is seized and is saleable to a member of the public. The sheriff may make a motion for permission to sell an asset of the judgment debtor by private sale or by public sale other than an auction.

Collecting debt

- 9 The sheriff may demand payment of a debt, or other liquidable obligation, other than wages owed to the judgment debtor and take any step the judgment debtor could take to collect the debt, including enforce security for the debt.

Injunction for securities

- 10 A person who controls a share, bond, debenture or other security in which the judgment debtor has an interest must transfer the interest to the sheriff, or liquidate the security as the sheriff directs and pay the proceeds to the sheriff.

Payment of judgment debtor's wages

- 11 All but fifteen percent of the judgment debtor's gross wages are exempt from this execution order. Also, nothing may be paid under this order that reduces the judgment debtor's wages, net of all statutory deductions, below $450 a week for a judgment debtor who supports a dependant or $330 a week for any other judgment debtor.

An employer who owes wages to, or comes to owe wages to, the judgment debtor must pay the unexempt amount to the sheriff. An employer must not by reason of this execution order, terminate the employment of, demote, reduce the wages of, or otherwise penalize the judgment debtor. Also, the employer is released from liability to pay the unexempt wages only when the payment is made to the sheriff.

Wages in account of deposit-taking corporation

- 12 A deposit-taking corporation that maintains an account into which, to the knowledge of a person who is responsible for the account, the judgment debtor's wages are automatically deposited must pay from the account the amount the employer would have had to pay. Also, the corporation is released from liability only when that amount is paid to the sheriff.

The sheriff may make a calculation of the amount and the deposit-taking corporation may rely on the calculation.

Injunction for joint account

- 13 A deposit-taking corporation must not honour a demand on a joint account of which the judgment debtor is one of the joint account holders until the judgment debtor's interest is determined in accordance with Nova Scotia Civil Procedure Rule 79.09. A payment made contrary to this injunction does not discharge the deposit-taking corporation's liability to the judgment debtor and it may be punished as contempt.

Injunction to assist sheriff

- 14 The judgment debtor, a person who controls property of a judgment debtor, and a person who is or becomes obligated to a judgment debtor must fully answer any question of the sheriff about the judgment debtor's property and give the answers in the manner directed by the sheriff. A person who controls access to the judgment debtor's property must provide the sheriff with access. No person may obstruct the sheriff from carrying out this order.

Agent of sheriff

- 15 The sheriff may retain a person to act as the sheriff's agent in carrying out this order.

Sheriff's expenses

- 16 The sheriff may pay all reasonable expenses incurred to carry out this order, including expenses to seize, otherwise take control of, store, protect, and liquidate property of the judgment debtor. The sheriff may agree to terms with, or accept an advance from, the judgment creditor to cover an expense. The sheriff may refuse to act on this order until terms are agreed or an advance is given.

Surplus

- 17 The sheriff may pay money, or deliver property, to the judgment debtor that is not required to satisfy the amount for execution, unless a judge directs otherwise.

Directions

- 18 A sheriff who receives a copy of an execution order may make a motion for directions on the sheriff's duties under the order or any other subject related to the order, and the sheriff may be represented by counsel or act on the sheriff's own behalf.

Contempt

19 A failure to comply with this order may be punished as contempt.

Periodic Execution Order

Before the prothonotary,

Judgment debtor: [name and address of judgment debtor]

Amount of periodic order: $

Payments due on: [the day of each month starting on /other]

Expiry date: [open ended/termination event/date]

Certified to be for family maintenance or support: [yes/no]

If family maintenance or support, arrears: [nil/not enforced by this order/$ .]

On the motion of the judgment creditor [name] , the following is ordered:

Injunction for periodic payment

A person to whom a copy of this order is delivered, and who is, or becomes, periodically obligated to pay money to the judgment debtor must pay to the sheriff, and out of each periodic obligation, the amount required by this order. Examples of periodic obligations are wages, salary, commissions, gratuities, other regular compensation for work, payments under an annuity, rent, regular income from shares, and periodic trust payments.

Amount required

The person must pay the lesser of the following amounts each time the periodic obligation comes due, unless the judgment debtor's periodic entitlement is exempt from execution:

- (a) the amount of the periodic order and, if this order includes arrears of family maintenance or support, an additional twenty-five percent of the amount of the periodic order until the arrears are paid;
- (b) the amount due on the periodic obligation.

Exempt wages

All but fifteen percent of the judgment debtor's gross wages are exempt from this execution order. Also, nothing may be paid under this order that reduces the judgment debtor's wages, net of all statutory deductions, below $450 a week for a judgment debtor who supports a dependant or $330 a week for any other judgment debtor.

These exemptions do not apply to an order certified to be for family maintenance or support.

Failure to comply: contempt and pay twice

A person who fails to comply with this injunction may be punished for contempt. Also, a person who pays money to the judgment debtor in contravention of this order remains liable for the amount.

Termination

The requirement to pay under this order ceases on the termination date or event stated on this order or, if there is no termination date or event, when the person who is periodically obligated receives a copy of an order terminating the periodic order or declaring it to be terminated.
