

ROBING CEREMONY FOR NEW PROVINCIAL COURT JUDGE

Monday, Oct. 23, 2023

The Provincial Court of Nova Scotia will host a robing ceremony in Kentville this Friday, Oct. 27, 2023, to officially welcome The Hon. Judge Angela Caseley.

The ceremony will take place at the Kentville Law Courts starting at 3 p.m. AST. Members of the Bar, media and the public are welcome to attend. The proceedings will also be livestreamed at <https://www.courts.ns.ca/operations/webcasts> and the archived video will be posted online following the event.

As per the Nova Scotia Courts' copyright policy, webcasts of court proceedings and special events may not be broadcast or re-broadcast by embedding them in another website or by any other means. However, portions of the webcasts (audio and video) may be re-broadcast as part of conventional news coverage. Hyperlinks to the live webcast page and the page of archived videos on the Courts website are permitted.

Judge Angela Caseley

Judge Angela Caseley is a graduate of Dalhousie Law School. She was called to the Bar in British Columbia in 1993 and in Nova Scotia in 1999.

She began her legal career as a defence lawyer before joining the British Columbia Prosecution Service. She returned to Nova Scotia in 1999, joining Beveridge, Lambert and Duncan, where she practised criminal defence, administrative law and civil litigation.

In 2000, Judge Caseley joined the Public Prosecution Service of Canada (PPSC), where she remained until her appointment to the Bench. Her career as a federal prosecutor focused primarily on organized crime and proceeds of crime cases, as well as helping establish wellness court programs throughout Nova Scotia. She is also a member of the province's Wellness Court Programs Steering Committee.

At the PPSC, Judge Caseley served as a senior counsel and team lead, and chaired the equity, diversity and inclusion committee. Outside the office, she has made significant contributions through volunteering with numerous community organizations.

Judge Caseley was appointed to the Provincial Court of Nova Scotia on June 16, 2023. She now presides primarily in Kentville.
